Demon Flames is a great sequel and I really enjoyed reading it even though I was really really upset about the cliffhanger at the end of the book. Right, a cliffhanger, and a really bad one, at least that's what it feels like.

Demon Flames, Resurrection Chronicles Book 2, by Melissa Haag, writing as M.J. Haag, and Becca Vincenza is a great addition to the series! Like the first book, it's a fast-paced adventure centering on Mya and Drav. We learn much more about Drav and his fascinating and brutal world. I loved his cleverly crafted backstory.

Demon Flames (Resurrection Chronicles Book 2) ... Well, the good news is that Demon Flames was a vast improvement in many aspects, and I couldn't be happier. Getting into some specifics, the plot was loads more interesting. The last book had this pattern where Drav and Mya would travel by night, sleep by day, Drav would cop a feel in the middle of the night, she would make him food and fight ...

Demon Escape is another thrilling story in the world of the Resurrection Chronicles. This story is another glimpse of the new world MJ and Becca created. While I was partially sad to hear that Becca would not be collaborating on this book, I was overjoyed with the result. This book feels much like the rest with it's own unique tale to tell.
